

Gindler Barn - Collinsville, Illinois

A Joint Project of the Timber Framers Guild
& Collinsville Illinois Area Recreation District (CARD)
& Trillium Dell Timberworks

July 7-19, 2008

Registration Deadline: June 20, 2008

The Workshop will demonstrate and teach best-practice assessment, repair, restoration and re-erection of historic structures, integration of original purlin plates and other timbers, raising and lifting individual timbers and original floor and bent assemblies, re-framing and sheathing roof integrating original and new materials. The workshop begins 8 a.m. July 8 and ends Saturday, July 19. Tuition for the two-week workshop is $350, including meals and campsite. Tuition may be waived for professional timber framers and/or individuals who have participated in previous TFG projects. If seeking a tuition waiver, please provide a résumé.

The Guild will also offer OSHA-compliant training in scaffold, fork lift and aerial lift use if we receive interest from at least 7 participants for each class. Pricing for the certification training is as follows:

- ✓ One class (either Fork Lift, Scaffold, or Aerial Lift Training): $125 /TFG members, $150 /Non-members
- ✓ All three classes (Fork Lift, Scaffold, and Aerial Lift Training): $300 /TFG members, $375 /Non-members

Do not include this amount in your payment; we will let you know prior to July 7 if the training will be conducted.

There is a $40 charge for the pre-Workshop Historic Tour, including transportation and dinner.
