About Scantlings notices

Notices are short text statements of one-time items for sale; items to buy or find; jobs offered or wanted; and announcements like ride shares, lost/found tools, or invitations to unusual raisings. They are not for services a business provides routinely. They are comparable to classified ads in a newspaper. Notices are posted on the TFG website as well as in Scantlings.

Members can post two free insertions (120 days on the web) per year; for non-members, notices are $80 for each Scantlings insertion. Whether free or paid, a notice can run two issues (120 days)/year maximum. 100 words maximum. Inclusion is decided by the Scantlings editor.

For a short invitation to regular services a business provides, we encourage you to purchase an ad in Scantlings or TIMBER FRAMING. A “tiny” ad size is now offered to fill that need and is less expensive than the cost for a non-member notice.
