

The Heartwood School is pleased to announce 2023 Scholarship Opportunities!

The Heartwood School's Scholarship Fund will award multiple scholarships ranging from $500 to $1400 to be applied to course tuition. This year's scholarships honor the memories of Will Beemer, Ken Rower and Ed Levin. Scholarships will be awarded to applicants interested in perpetuating the craft of timber framing.

To apply for a 2023 Scholarship to help offset the cost of tuition, please submit the following information to Executive Director, Neil Godden, at neil@heartwoodschool.com.

Entries must be received by March 1, 2023.

- First and Last Name
- Phone number
- Email address
- Current Occupation
- Please list the course/courses you are planning to take.

- Submit a short summary explaining how your attendance in this course would benefit you, why you are considering the Heartwood School, and what you are planning to do with the knowledge gained in this class. (100-400 words)

- Please share information about your interest and experience with timber framing, building and woodworking.

- To help the Heartwood School Scholarship Committee understand more about who you are and how this scholarship may benefit you and your attendance at Heartwood this year, please feel free to include the following additional information:
 - Tell us a bit about yourself
 - Have you attended tech/vocational school/training?
 - Would you like to share information about how attending this course may be a financial hardship?
 - Where will you be traveling from to attend this course? (Do you live locally? Are you a resident of Cheshire County, New Hampshire? Will you have substantial travel expenses to attend this course?)

Please note the funds provided in this scholarship will be applied directly to the cost of tuition. If tuition has been paid previously, a reimbursement in the amount awarded will be forwarded by check. Scholarship recipients may be asked to write a short synopsis of their time at Heartwood to be used in future Heartwood scholarship promotion materials. Applicants will be notified by phone or email.

If you have questions, please direct them to Neil Godden at neil@heartwoodschool.com or 603-678-1156.
